remarkable case of mistaken A remarkable case of mistaken identity has just come to light. Several years ago, an English burglar named Collins killed his wife, on the outskirts of Providence, Rhode Island. On the day of the murder, a sea captain, named J. M. Cockson, and his wife, quarrelled and separated. When the body of Mrs. Collins was found, it was identified as that of Mrs. Cockson, whose husband was arrested, tried and would have was arrested, tried and would have been hanged but for the timely re-appearance of his wife. The question was then raised, who was the murdered woman? The answer has at last been furnished by a professional burglar, recently arrested in New York, who knew Collins and his wife, and who has related all the facts to

The Fair Face of a Beautiful Woman

The Fair Face of a Beautiful Woman

Is the admiration of every one. No one possessing this rich gift and attribute of health and attraction would exchange it for the wealth of the Indies. Yet how many suffer their skin to become rough with spots and pimples, which mar the beauty and bloom of the face. The CIRCANSIAN BLOOM removes all spots and blemishes, tan, freekles, pimples, blotches, and imparts a beautiful complexion, so attractive in woman.

WEEKLY COMPENSATION IN CASE OF TOTAL DISABILITY !

This is the first and only institution of the kind ever organized in the Southern States for the purpose of INSURING AGAINST LIFE and ACCIDENT.

It insures against accidents of every description, whether they occur while traveling by cars, steamboats or other public conveyance; while engaged in the store, office, workshop, factory, on the farm, or in any of the ordinary occupations of life; whether riding, walking, hunting, boating, fishing, engineering, surveying, railroading, steamboating or seated by the domestic fireside.

General Accident Policies issued by this Company secure to the person insured the payment of a fixed sum per week (from $3 to $50) during the time he may be disabled by accident, not to exceed twenty-six weeks for any one accident; and in case of death by any form of casualty, the payment of a fixed sum (from $500 to $10,000) to the friends of the person insured, or party for whose benefit the policy is issued.

Under the system adopted by this Company, persons may be insured for weekly compensation only, for death only, or for both.

The rates of premium are LESS than in any other class of insurance, in proportion to the risk.
